

How does your bank measure up when it comes to animal welfare?

	Public animal welfare policy*	Does not finance live export industry	Does not finance intensive farming industry	Policy requires pain relief for animals
Bank Australia
ING
Bendigo &amp; Adelaide / Rural Bank <small>*Bendigo &amp; Adelaide Rural Bank has published an animal welfare statement. A publicly available policy would be welcomed in the future.</small>
National Australia Bank
Rabobank
Suncorp <small>*Suncorp has no public animal welfare statement or policy.</small>
Bank of Queensland <small>*Bank of Queensland has published an animal welfare statement. A publicly available policy would be welcomed in the future.</small>
HSBC Australia <small>*HSBC Australia has published an animal welfare statement. A publicly available policy would be welcomed in the future.</small>
Westpac <small>*Westpac has published an animal welfare statement. A publicly available policy would be welcomed in the future.</small>
ANZ <small>*ANZ have provided a statement to Animals Australia about animal welfare. A publicly available policy would be welcomed in the future.</small>
Commonwealth Bank <small>*Commonwealth Bank has no public animal welfare statement or policy.</small>
Arab Bank Australia <small>Arab Bank Australia has no public animal welfare statement or policy.</small>

**Policy requires the provision of pain relief for invasive procedures including mulesing, castration and dehorning.

ANIMAL WELFARE BAROMETER:

